Applicants for admission and employment, students, employees, sources of referral for applicants seeking admission and employment, and all professional organizations holding professional agreements with Lincoln University are hereby notified that this institution does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs and activities. Any student having inquiries concerning compliance with the regulations implementing Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is directed to contact the Coordinator of Disabilities Services, 304 Founders Hall, Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65102; (573) 681-5162. The coordinator has been designated by the University to coordinate the University's compliance with the regulations implementing Section 504, as they apply to students. Concerns regarding campus accessibility should be directed to the ADA Coordinator at (573) 681-5088. Persons also may contact the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, regarding the University's compliance with the regulations cited in legislation Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

STUDENT PRIVACY ACT

In accordance with the federal "Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974," Lincoln University has developed the following policy with regard to access to student records:

1. Public Records (Directory Information)

"Directory Information" includes the following information relating to a student: the student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student and other similar information.

Students shall be informed at the time of their admission that such records may be released unless they specifically request in writing by the last day of registration that all of part of the information shall not be disclosable as a matter of public record.

2. Confidential Records

The University will not send or will not release grade reports, transcripts, identifying data, or other education information in the student file intended for school use without written consent from the student. Upon receipt of a signed authorization from the student, appropriate material may be released in accordance with his/her request.

Exempted from this restriction are parents of a dependent student as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, i.e., students who receive over one-half of their financial support from the natural or adoptive parents.

The complete statement of the University policy, with regard to this act, may be found in the Rules and Regulations of Lincoln University, Chapter V.

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY PARKING POLICIES

All motor vehicles (automobiles, trucks, vans, motor bikes, motor scooters or motorcycles), including those owned by part-time as well as full-time faculty, staff and students, parked in any of the Lincoln University parking lots, at any time, must display a valid and appropriate parking permit.

An individual must pay for a parking permit (hangtag) at the Cashier's Office, where they can obtain the permit and register their vehicle.

Cars parked in lots without the appropriate permit will be ticketed and may be towed. No back-in parking is allowed where posted. Only persons with "Reserved" permits are guaranteed parking spaces. Reserved spaces are held for those vehicles with special reserve permits. These spaces are posted with numbered signs, and are reserved 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All other spaces are on a first come first park basis. Handicapped spaces are reserved at all times for cars bearing disabled license plates or a disabled hang tag. Visitors to Lincoln University may park on campus if they obtain a visitor parking permit from the Lincoln University Police Department or park in spaces marked with a visitor parking sign. No other vehicles may be parked in visitor spaces.

A more complete list of Lincoln University parking regulations may be obtained from the Lincoln University Police Departmen or by logging on to the University Web page at www.lincolnu.edu.
