Contracts are for a full academic year or the remainder thereof. Eligibility for and terms of a contract buyout may be found in the Student Handbook. Contract buyouts must be completed prior to the scheduled opening of residence halls to avoid additional fees.

The University reserves the right to require students to relocate to a different facility if it reasonably determines closing a particular facility is necessary or may be beneficial for safety, financial or other reasons. Reasonable notice will be provided in advance of any required relocation. No adjustment in charges will be made unless the value of the substitute facility materially differs from the value of the original facility assigned to the student.
